

COUNCILLOR TONY PARSONS

Tony has lived in Townsville his whole life and obtained an apprenticeship in the Railway in 1980. He remained with the Railway until he purchased the Victory Newsagency in Hermit Park in 1995. In 1996, Tony became involved in the local radio station as a sports broadcaster.

For the past eight years, Tony has been responsible for the management of the 4TO Cowboys Call Team and for the past five years, the 4TO Crocs Call Team. Tony is a life member of Sharks Touch Club in Townsville and has served as a President as well as coach and referee in this sport. He has also played at representative levels including Townsville, North Queensland and Queensland. Other sports he has been involved in locally include golf, rugby league, cycling and harness racing, both as a driver and race caller.
