A fertile future for our city

Flinders Street redevelopment, the Indoor Sports Centre at Murray, the Reid Park development and Jezzine Barracks redevelopment.

These projects will inject hundreds of millions of dollars into the local economy and deliver a whole new level of lifestyle opportunities for the city.

attendance records from previous years.

The success of these events showcases the diversity of our community. It is truly gratifying that a city of our size can sustain local and national scale events and that our residents will come out to support them year after year.

Top class events need exceptional facilities, and it was with great pride that I accepted the NQ Tidiest Town Award last month. It is an award that belongs to an entire community.

We have a first-class system of parks and gardens, modern sporting, entertainment, and cultural spaces, great events, facilities and services to support families, youth and the elderly, and a high standard of public infrastructure and basic services that make the city a great place in which to live.

For years, the city has earned a reputation as a "can do" community by doing things for itself to enjoy lifestyle opportunities that are taken for granted in the big smoke.

And the momentum is not going to stop as we move into the spring and summer months.

Council is busily working on projects such as the Townsville Civic Theatre extensions,

The city is certainly cementing its reputation as one of the most liveable in the country. Continuing our efforts to become the events capital of the state, in August we steamed into Cultural Fest which was bigger and better than ever, and enjoyed the more laid back pace of the Seniors Picnic in the Park.

With barely an opportunity to take a breath, we celebrated the tenth anniversary of our beloved Strand. The Defence Air Display and Fireworks Spectacular lived up to its promise, and the Kite Festival and birthday Strand Night Markets broke
