

Disaster Management Policy

Disaster Management Act 2003

1. POLICY STATEMENT

Townsville City Council will support our local community in disaster events (natural and/or non-natural) by providing a framework for effective disaster preparedness and response in accordance with its responsibilities under the Queensland Disaster Management Act 2003.

2. PRINCIPLES

The Townsville City Council is primarily responsible for managing disasters that occur within the Townsville local government area (Section 4A(c) of the Disaster Management Act 2003), via the Townsville Local Disaster Management Group (TLDMG).

The Council:

- recognises that disaster management operations are a whole-of-organisation responsibility, requiring integration across the range of corporate functions to enhance the ability of Council and the community to prepare for and respond to natural and man-made disasters; and
- will discharge its disaster management responsibilities in a way that complies with the State's disaster management legislation and policies; and
- will support comprehensive disaster management through programs that address prevention, preparedness, response and recovery

3. SCOPE

This policy applies to all Council activities and services, including business units and service delivery units, as well as all Local Disaster Management Group Member and Advisory Member organisations.

4. RESPONSIBILITY

Council's Leadership Management Group, Local Disaster Coordinator and Emergency Management Section are responsible for ensuring this policy and associated documents are understood and adhered to by all permanent staff.

5. DEFINITIONS

Local Disaster Coordinator – means Officer of Council (Team Manager Emergency Management) – appointed by the Chair of the TLDMG – responsible for the management and coordination of the City's disaster management arrangements on behalf of Council and the Local Disaster Management Group. The functions of the position are given in Section 36 of the Disaster Management Act 2003.

Townsville District Disaster Management Group (TDDMG) – means multi-agency group established in accordance with Section 22 of the Disaster Management Act 2003 to assist Council with its management of disaster events. Functions of the TDDMG are given in Section 23 of the Act.

Townsville Local Disaster Management Group (TLDMG) – means multi-agency group established by Council in accordance with Section 29 of the Disaster Management Act 2003 to assist Council with its management of disaster events. Functions of the TLDMG are given in Section 30 of the Act.

6. POLICY

Council will:

- develop its arrangements and programs for the effective management of disasters and disaster operations in accordance with the Queensland Emergency Management Assurance Framework (EMAF).
- through existing partnerships, establish and maintain a comprehensive “all hazards, all agencies” approach to implementing effective prevention, preparedness, response and recovery measures, regardless of the nature of the hazard;
- foster commitment to a shared culture of disaster management excellence;
- carry out strategic planning within the context of resources and risk to underpin decision making to achieve effective disaster management outcomes for the community;
- engage widely with the community to allow their input to the development of plans and to educate and inform;
- prioritise public safety when revising the Townsville Local Disaster Management Plan and associated sub plans;
- apply effective corporate governance strategies that allow for the continuous improvement of disaster management policy, programs, practices and service delivery to promote safety and enhance disaster resilience within the community;
- ensure leaderships roles and responsibilities within the disaster management process are clearly defined in the Position Descriptions of appropriate positions;
- seek to provide sufficient staff coverage from across all council departments to effectively carry out council’s disaster management responsibilities; and
- provide appropriate training to all permanent council employees with a recognised disaster management role or responsibility.
