TERMS

I declare that the information I have provided in this form is complete and correct. I understand that giving false or misleading information is a serious offence under section 234 of the Local Government Act 2009.

A Right of Burial Certificate may be transferred by the mutual agreement of the Right of Burial Certificate holder and another person. Both parties must give agreement in writing to Council and complete a Right of Burial Transfer Application form. A transfer fee applies.

On the death of the Right of Burial Certificate holder, the authority to authorise burials in a grave reverts to Council. It is the families' responsibility to apply for the transfer of Right of Burial into the rightful beneficiary's name, should they wish to do so. At its discretion, Council will not allow the transfer of Right of Burial to occur if it cannot be clearly agreed and determined who the rightful beneficiary is.

A Construction Permit for the erection of a monument can only be granted with permission from the Right of Burial Holder, or in the event the Right of Burial Holder has passed, the Applicant for the Right of Burial Certificate Holder's interment is the only authorised person to consent to a Construction Permit request (unless a formal Right of Burial Transfer application occurs).

A valid Right of Burial Certificate may be surrendered to Council. Upon surrender, Council will pay the valid Right of Burial Certificate holder or their estate 90% of the original purchase price of the unused grave (as per the Townsville Cemeteries Statement of Principles).
