Community and Environment

1 Declaration under Townsville City Council Local Law No. 3 (Community and Environmental Management)

Executive Summary

Council has been requested by the State Government to make changes to our Local Law No. 3 (Community and Environmental Management) 2011 to have feral horses in Townsville declared to be a local pest. This will provide council the power to direct landowners to control feral horses on their properties as the feral horses pose a clear and immediate risk to public safety.

Officer’s Recommendation

That under section 7 of the Townsville City Council Local Law No. 3 (Community and Environmental Management) 2011 council resolve that it is satisfied that urgent action is needed to minimise the immediate risk of environmental harm posed by feral horses in Townsville, and that accordingly the council makes an emergency declaration that feral horses in Townsville are a local pest that must be immediately controlled by all relevant land owners.

Council Decision

It was MOVED by Councillor V Veitch, SECONDED by Councillor L Walker:

"that the officer’s recommendation be adopted."

CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY
Close of Meeting
