

RECYCLE RIGHT

You will need: A marker for each player (e.g. buttons or pebbles) and a dice.
Climb up the ladders and slide down the conveyor belts. Play the game with your friends and family, tell them what you're doing to recycle right and encourage them to do the same.

FINISH
Keep recycling right!

64	63	62	61	60	59	58	57
		Oops! You put cardboard in the general waste bin instead of the yellow recycling bin.				You attended a Recycling Centre Open Day proving Townsville recycles. AWESOME!
49	50		52	53	54	55	56
	Uh oh! You put paper in the general waste bin instead of the yellow recycling bin.						You put the empty cereal and tissue boxes in the yellow recycling bin. AWESOME!
48	47	46	45	44	43	42	41
					You rinsed and recycled your empty spaghetti tin. GREAT JOB!	Oh no! You put food scraps in the yellow recycling bin.
33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40
Oops! You put a paper cup in the yellow recycling bin. (Most paper cups have a plastic lining and cannot be recycled).							You learnt plastic bottle caps and pizza boxes can go in the yellow recycling bin. CONGRATULATIONS!
32	31	30	29	28	27	26	25
				You learnt only glass jars and bottles go in your yellow recycling bin. WELL DONE!	Woopsies! You put a plastic straw in the yellow recycling bin.
17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24
	You learnt batteries can't be recycled in your yellow recycling bin only purple battery world bins. GREAT JOB!			Oh no! You put your recyclables in a plastic bag instead of placing them loose in the yellow recycling bin.
16	15	14	13	12	11	10	9
	Woops! You put soft, scrunchable plastics in the yellow recycling bin.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
START recycling your waste!	You learnt junk mail and wrapping paper do go in your yellow recycling bin. GREAT JOB!		You rinsed your recyclables before putting them in the yellow recycling bin. YOU DID IT!				You stopped someone from littering their empty drink can and put it in the yellow recycling bin. CONGRATULATIONS!