Pandora Gallery
HMS Pandora was the British Royal Navy warship dispatched to the South Pacific in pursuit of the infamous Bounty mutineers. Today, the mutiny on the Bounty remains one of the best-known stories in the history of seafaring.
In her day, HMS Pandora was a prized and proud member of the Royal Navy. Today the Pandora is one of the most significant shipwrecks in the Southern Hemisphere. The Queensland Museum has been excavating the wreck and piecing together the Pandora puzzle since 1983. The Pandora Gallery is the mainstay exhibition at the Museum of Tropical Queensland. Visitors will be captivated by the story of the ill-fated Pandora and should allow at least an hour to enjoy this intriguing exhibition.

To December 15th

SCIENCECENTRE

A permanent gallery, Sciencecentre promises a discovery-zone with plenty of fun where people of all ages can get hands-on with more than 20 interactive exhibits and find out how science challenges the human body, exercises the brain and stimulates the senses. Kids can explore the world of science through play, follow their curiosity, ask questions, test ideas and use their imagination in this exciting, interactive and experience-rich environment. The exhibition invites visitors to challenge their friends, solve puzzles and learn about how science is a part of the things they do every day.

New

March 15th – April 28th
Migrating Souls Donna Beningfield
Donna Beningfield’s Migrating Souls comprises of over fifty works on slate tiles and canvas, depicting local personalities and one of their many past lives. These past lives include a 500,000 year old hunter-gatherer, a falconer, a fisherman, a knight from the Middle Ages, as well as a range of contemporary personalities.

Object

OBJECT brings together a group of works from the City of Townsville Art Collection that fall outside of the traditional paint on canvas and ceramic, and in doing so, encapsulates a unique expression of art that is worthy of attention. These works challenge the traditional idea that certain materials are suitable or unsuitable as a work of art while questioning the notion of what art can be.

To April 7th
Express Yourself

Express Yourself is drawn from the National Portrait Gallery’s Contemporary Collection and highlights portraits of Australians whose unique life experiences symbolise social and cultural themes. The portraits attest to the facility of photographic portraiture to convey compelling psychological depth. The exhibition will premiere a newly commissioned portrait of Rosie Batty by photographer Nikki Toole. Recognised as a spokesperson for combatting domestic violence, Rosie Batty was awarded Australian of the Year in 2015. Short interviews with sitters and artists complement the portraits displayed.

The Drill Hall
27 Mitchell St North Ward 4721 2634
0418 750 854 mailto:sue@thedrillhallstudio.com.au   http://www.thedrillhallstudio.com.au
Open: 9am – 5pm Monday to Friday; 9am – 4pm Saturday and Sunday

The Drill Hall building was originally part of the North Ward Defence Complex, development of which began in 1885, constructed as a Volunteer Defence Training facility. It was not until the discovery of gold in the 1850s that the need for a strong military presence in Australia was seen to be necessary. Gold shipments required protection within the country and shipments at sea needed protection from privateers.

March 22nd 7pm – 10.30pm
Matt Corby – Rainbow Valley Tour
Triple j & Live Nation Australia & New Zealand present The Rainbow Valley Tour

For a decade, the multi-platinum-selling musician has been pushing his own boundaries, embracing a journey of self-discovery that’s seen him wrestle a few pre-conceptions and stare down his share of demons. With two ARIA Song of the Year awards and a #1 debut album behind him, Corby can genuinely lay claim to some hard-earned perspective.

Lush, multi-textured and sparked by hints of both old soul and futuristic psychedelia, Rainbow Valley is, in Corby’s words “joyous music”, but it also has the depth and perspective of an artist who understands you can’t just take the good times for granted, you have to earn them. The sparkling first single No Ordinary Life and the bare-bones ballad All Fired Up and current single All That I See have received widespread acclaim and give fans a taste of what to expect on Corby’s stunning new album.

We’ve Only Just Begun
The Carpenters were one of the most successful and cherished bands of all time. Recording some of the greatest love songs in pop music history, they captivated not one but three generations of fans. We've Only Just Begun is a moving music-filled performance that celebrates the hits of the band. Australian music theatre star, Angela Lumicisi’s spellbinding performance channels Karen Carpenter’s unique voice to recreate the distinctive style that made the Carpenters among the best-selling artists of all time. Featuring your favourite hits including Top of the World, Close To You, Yesterday Once More and many more, We’ve Only Just Begun is a remarkable and intimate musical experience.
Cost: $15

March 30th 8pm – 11pm
The Sapphires
The Sapphires is one of Australia’s best-loved stories. This multiple award-winning musical play, that inspired the film, is coming to the Burdekin Theatre stage for the first time.
Four young Aboriginal women from regional Australia, who like singing country music, suddenly get the chance to change their tune and their lives. Wearing sequins and armed only with microphones they find themselves trying to spread joy in the hell that is the Vietnam War.
The Sapphires is a funny, heart-warming tale inspired by the true story of Tony Brigg’s mother – the incredible journey of four Yorta Yorta Women, who sing Motown hits against the backdrop of personal change and massive social upheaval. It is an energetic, fun and engaging play that affirms life and the realisation of dreams.
Cost: $40 / $38 / $25

Popular Fiction Writers Group Workshops

Publishers love commercial fiction; it’s what hits the bestseller lists, it’s what everyone’s talking about. And it covers many different genres: romance, crime, mystery, thriller, and subsequent subgenres. This devoted group engages in workshops of craft that can be applied to writers of all genres, such as writing engaging first pages, building tension, and character development.

There will be something in this group for every romantic with a pen in their hand and every writer with death and daggers in their heart and soul.

Popular Fiction meets on the LAST WEDNESDAY of each month at the Townsville Writers and Publishers Centre. Every month there is a different workshop topic.

Romance and Commercial Fiction

This group is for the romantically-inclined creative writer who would like to engage with other passionate wordsmiths who enjoy the genre. Please bring a gold coin to cover costs of nibbles.

When: the fourth Wednesday of the month 6.30pm – 8.30pm (meet at the front of the arts centre at 6.25pm)

Venue: TWPC Office, Riverway Arts Centre

Contact: romance@twpc.org

To December

Verb Writers Group

Verb writers group is for writers and poets interested in connecting with like-minded creatives, developing their writing craft and receiving feedback on their works-in-progress. This group holds seminars and workshops that focus on advanced writing techniques as well as the basics: grammar, metaphor, active voice and point of view, among others.

This group is wonderful for anyone who writes and wants to improve their skills on the path to publication.

Verb meets on the FIRST WEDNESDAY of each month at the Townsville Writers and Publishers Centre.

We have a different topic to discuss at each meeting. Our April, July, and October meetings are devoted to poetry.

Shut Up & Write!

Not sure what Shut Up & Write! Sessions are about? It’s just what it says. Members (or anyone really) who can’t find the time to write in their ordinary lives get the opportunity to join like-minded people in a two-hour session where there is minimal socialising and a very strict mediator who makes sure there is lots of writing!

BYO caffeine and snacks

Come join Umbrella Studio and add your touch to a large artwork that will be displayed at this year’s Groovin the Moo Festival on 5 May 2019. Working with a local artist, workshop attendees will decorate and transform an array of suitcases with paints, fabric, paper and other craft materials. All are welcome to come get creative! Once assembled at the festival site, the suitcases will be put together to form a large public artwork for festival goers! As a participant, you could be in with a chance of receiving a FREE TICKET to our local Groovin the Moo festival. Participants can come for one session or as many as they like. To be eligible for the chance to win a free ticket to Groovin the Moo, Townsville you are required to attend one full workshop session. Your name will then be put into a draw to win a ticket; there are 35 to be won. Umbrella Studio will announce the winners on Monday 15 April 2019. Please note: all children under 13 years old must be supervised by an adult during workshops.

April 7th 10am – 1pm
Creative Kids Workshop
Creative Kids is relaxed classes in a gallery space where children are encouraged to let their imaginations run wild and have fun experimenting with a range of materials and techniques working with trained artist facilitator / teacher – Hannah Murray. In this workshop children will explore the magical world of artist MC Escher. Create optical illusions, visual puzzles and tessellated patterns in paper, pen and print. Inspired by MC Escher’s optical illusions these activities will defy all rules of perspective and reality. This program is for children aged 6 – 14 years old. Payment is payable at time of booking, before the classes begin. All children will be signed in and out by the parent or adult guardian and collected when the class finishes on time at 1pm. The class needs a minimum number of 5 children for it to proceed – please book early. When booking – please include your child’s name and age in the notes section.
Venue: Murky Waters Studio, 126 Hanran Street Townsville
Cost: $50

Urban Sketchers Townsville
Urban Sketchers is a free, open, inclusive group of people who love to draw from the urban environment and share their work. It is part of a global movement that aims to record your world one drawing at a time. We meet at various locations around the city usually 4-6pm Mondays and occasionally other times. Join the Facebook group Urban Sketchers Townsville for details, locations and times. Grab your sketchbook and pens. Anyone with a desire to draw is welcome to join us. There is no cost, just a commitment to share your work on the group page.

Woodcut Printing with Erin
February 23rd – March 2nd 10am – 12pm
This workshop will be run over two sessions. Making a woodcut print follows the same process as linocut printing. However, carving into a wooden plate has a different feel and produces a unique quality of mark. Over the two classes, you will practice using carving tools, carve your own wooden plate, learn the basic process of printing by hand and produce a set of finished prints.
BYO woodcut or linocut tools.
Your tool set must contain at least one ‘V’ gouge and one ‘U’ gouge tool. These classes are aimed at beginners and are suitable for adults.

Australian Festival of Chamber Music
July 26th – August 4th
The 29th Australian Festival of Chamber Music will take place in tropical North Queensland from Friday 26th July to Sunday 4th August 2019. Artistic Director, Kathryn Stott, has confirmed a line-up of more than 30 musicians from all around the world will perform in Townsville over the 10 days, including several who have never performed in Australia before!
Some 25 concerts and 5 special events will entertain visitors and locals alike, including the hugely popular morning Conversations, full-length Evening concerts, a magical concert on the beach of Orpheus Island and a concert on Magnetic Island.

Please advise the Community Information Centre if you find errors in, or have additions or changes to these events.

Townsville Cinema Group

Do you love movies, especially the kind you won’t find playing at local theatres? Are you on a tight budget or just like a fabulous deal? Would you like to get out on a regular date with your partner every other week? Well then, consider joining The Townsville Cinema Group (TCG), one of Australia's oldest film societies. We screen two International and/or Australian feature films every second Thursday (March 14th to November this year) at the Warrina Cineplex. We focus on presenting movies of outstanding merit and limited release. Films are of different genres, cultures and countries, and most would not otherwise be available in Townsville. Foreign language films are subtitled. Annual Membership of just $110 gives you admission to approximately 32 films for the 2019 season. That works out to just less than $3.50 a movie! If you happen to be 26 years old or younger we’re offering an annual membership of just $85.

A limited number of seats are available at each screening for non-members. Admission is $13 per screening night, paid at the Warrina Cineplex box-office. That’s still a great deal.

To take out a membership you can either:

2. Obtain an application form from the Warrina Cineplex box office
3. Download a hard copy application form in pdf format from the website

(If you have problems with downloading, send an email to info@cinemagroup.org.au)

Membership & Benefits

TWPC membership includes access to our resources and numerous writing groups and we now have organisation membership to the Queensland Writers Centre. This means that individual members of the TWPC can take advantage of the membership discounts for courses offered by the QWC.
The WQ quarterly magazine is available at the TWPC office and online by using our membership number and password. Members can access this if they attend any of the writers’ groups that operate under the TWPC umbrella. Just ask your group’s facilitator or email us.

The TWPC also subscribes to the online Australian Writer’s Marketplace (AWM). The AWM directory lists over 2,000 opportunities for writers, with submission and contact details for Magazines, Newspapers, Publishers, Literary Agents, Industry Organisations, and Literary Awards. Details of the username and password to access AWM online will be available to members when they attend any of the writers’ groups. If you’d like to become a new member, do it online at our new and improved webpage. Email info@twpc.org for more.
